

Barents Rescue 2022 (BR22)

Webinar 27. January 2022

Moderator Mr. Erling Kvernevik, the Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection (DSB)

Time	Program
09.00 – 09.15	Opening and general information about the exercise Barents Rescue 2022 Anders Gundersen, The Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection (DSB)
09.15 – 09.40	The Barents Agreement – Resources, routines and response Sveing Torgersen, The Norwegian Ministry of Justice and Public Security (JD)
09.45 – 10.10	Command and Control – How to organize an accident site in Norway Jan Eirik Holen, Nordland Police District
10.15 – 10.30	Coffee break
10.30 – 10.55	Host Nation Support (HNS) – Expectations, challenges and opportunities Morten Wold Larsen, The Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection (DSB)
11.00 – 11.25	Cross Nation Critical Communication – How to use ISI-talk groups during the exercise Matilde Brown Megård and Øyving Karlsen, The Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection (DSB and Nødnett)
11.30 – 12.30	Lunch
12.30 – 12.55	Marine Environmental Response in the Barents Sea – Responsibility, resources and international cooperation Ole Kristian Bjerkemo, The Norwegian Coastal Administration (Kystverket)
13.00 – 13.25	Mass Rescue Operation – Rescue coordination in a chaotic environment Johan Mannsåker, Joint Rescue Coordination Centre (JRCC Stavanger)
13.30 – 13.55	Stop the Bleed – How to treat a mass accident site in a cold condition Inger Lund-Kordahl, on behalf of Nasjonalt kompetansesenter for Traumalogi, Ullevål Hospital in Oslo, and Katastrofmedisinskt centrum, University in Linköping
14.00 – 14.15	Coffee break
14.15 – 14.40	Cruise ship MS Viking Sky 2019 – SAR and rescue operation in cold conditions Thorry Aakenes, Møre og Romsdal Police District (MRPD) and Local Rescue Centre (LRS)
14.45 – 15.10	Hypothermia – Treatment and transport in cold conditions Runar Allnor Helskog, Nordland Hospital Bodø (Nordlandssykehuset)
15.15 – 15.30	Ending